

Let's Go on a Musical Scavenger Hunt!

You can find a lot of interesting details in your music that you might not notice while practicing. See how many of the following items you can find by looking through your music and assignment sheets!

- Music that begins at a piano dynamic
- A sticker on your music or assignment sheet
- Music about something found in nature
- Fermata
- A finger number written in the music by you or your teacher
- Picture of a composer
- Decrescendo*
- Three pieces that use the fortissimo dynamic marking
- Two compositions you have played in public performances
- A piece of music that you are excited to learn
- Star written in your music or on your assignment
- A time signature with an odd number (3, 5, 7, etc) as the top number
- A time signature with a 2 or 8 as the bottom number
- Repeat sign